Forthcoming official meetings held away from Headquarters

United Nations Convention to Combat Desertification in Those Countries Experiencing Serious Drought and/or Desertification, particularly in Africa

Conference of the Parties
Eleventh session
Windhoek, Namibia
16–27 September 2013

The eleventh session of the Conference of the Parties (COP 11) to the United Nations Convention to Combat Desertification (UNCCD) and the meetings of its subsidiary bodies will be held from Monday, 16, to Friday, 27 September 2013, at the Windhoek Country Club Resort, in Windhoek, Namibia.

It is proposed that COP 11 be divided into three segments. During the initial segment from 16 to 20 September, negotiations will be devoted to the work of the eleventh session of the Committee on Science and Technology (CST11), the twelfth session of the Committee for the Review of the Implementation of the Convention (CRIC12) and to other major issues included in the programme of work of the COP.

At the opening session of the COP11, scheduled on Monday, 16 September 2013, at 15:00, in accordance with past practice, a limited number of speakers representing major groups of States, the United Nations, its specialized agencies and other intergovernmental organizations, regional and other interest groups and non-governmental organizations, will have an opportunity to address the Conference.

The meetings of the COP subsidiary bodies will be held from 17 to 20 September (CST11) and from 17 to 26 September (CRIC12) at the Conference venue, in Windhoek, Namibia. The CST11 session will open at 10:00 on Tuesday, 17 September, and conclude at 18:00 on Friday, 20 September. The CRIC12 session will open at 15:00 on Tuesday, 17 September, and conclude at 13:00 on Thursday, 26 September.

The high-level segment will be held on 23 and 24 September 2013. Special statements on behalf of regional and interest groups will be made on Monday morning, 23 September. Following the opening of the high-level segment, there will be two interactive round table dialogue sessions. Round table 1 would be in the morning, on the topic "Role of the UNCCD in achieving a land-degradation neutral world in the context of sustainable development". Round table 2 would be in the afternoon, on the topic "Overcoming the hurdles of scaling up and disseminating good practices in the context of the UNCCD implementation process".

On Tuesday, 24 September, the third interactive round table dialogue session would be held in the morning, on the topic "Economics of desertification/land degradation and restoration: Considering cost-benefit analyses for scaling up investments in avoiding land degradation and restoring/regenerating degraded land". The high-level segment would conclude on Tuesday afternoon with a ministerial discussion on the way forward and on the topic "Capitalizing on achievements and enhancing the implementation of the UNCCD and The Strategy at country and regional levels".

The last day of the session will be devoted to the adoption of decisions on any outstanding issues.

The annotated provisional agenda, proposed organization of work and documentation for the sessions, contained in documents ICCD/COP(11)/1, ICCD/COP(11)/CST/1 and ICCD/CRIC(12)/1, are available on the UNCCD website. Additional information on the COP11 sessions is available on the above mentioned website and on the website of the host country (click here).

United Nations Audiovisual Library of International Law: Urgent appeal for voluntary contributions

The United Nations Audiovisual Library of International Law (AVL) is a unique multi-media resource and key instrument for promoting a greater understanding of the essential role of the United Nations in the field of international law. It consists of a permanent collection of scholarly lectures, historic archives of significant international law instruments and an online legal research library providing extensive international law research materials. Since its launch on 28 October 2008, the Audiovisual Library has been accessed by individuals and institutions in 192 Member States of the United Nations.

As the United Nations Audiovisual Library of International Law is funded by voluntary contributions, the Codification Division of the Office of Legal Affairs is seeking contributions from Member States in order to continue these activities. For additional information or inquiries, please contact Ms. Virginia Morris, Principal Legal Officer, Codification Division, Office of Legal Affairs (e-mail avl@un.org; tel. 1 (917) 367-5284).

Security Council

Communications to the President of the Security Council

Communications addressed to the President of the Security Council should be delivered to the Office of the President of the Council (room S-2472; tel. 1 (212) 963-5258; fax 1 (917) 367-0406).

Website of the presidency

The website of the presidency of the Security Council can be visited at www.un.org/en/sc/presidency/.

Recorded information

Recorded information about previously unscheduled meetings and consultations of the whole of the Security Council may be obtained by calling 1 (212) 963-8530, or by clicking on "Programme of work" on the website of the Security Council at www.un.org/en/sc/.

Prepared statements

Speakers in the Security Council are advised that providing in advance copies of prepared statements which they intend to read out in the Council greatly facilitates the work of the Secretariat by permitting a sufficient number of copies to be distributed to all meeting participants and by assisting interpreters, verbatim reporters and press officers in maintaining the quality of the product delivered. Both interpretations and verbatim records rely upon the statement actually delivered, but copies of texts help interpreters to correctly render details and nuances and help verbatim reporters to produce the written record more quickly. Speakers are therefore encouraged, whenever possible, to provide copies of their statements, as early as possible in advance of delivery, to the Conference Room Officer in the Chamber.

Delegations are kindly requested to make 40 copies for minimum distribution to Council members and relevant services, and 200 additional copies for general distribution in the Security Council Chamber.

Delegations wishing to make statements available for the media are kindly requested to deliver 50 copies to the Media Documents Centre (e-mail mdc@un.org; tel. 1 (212) 963-7166; room S-0220).

Emergency information and updates

Emergency information and updates can be obtained on the United Nations Headquarters Emergency Information website at https://delegateinfo.un.int. The website also offers the option of subscription to e-mail alerts. In addition, a hotline number for updates during weather emergencies or other urgent situations can be accessed by calling 1 (212) 963-9800.

Announcement for Member States on issuance of communications

Delegations requesting issuance of communications as documents of the General Assembly should ensure that they are addressed to the Secretary-General and signed by the Permanent Representative or Chargé d'affaires of the Permanent Mission to the United Nations. The communications should indicate the session of the General Assembly, and the number and title of the agenda item under which circulation is requested, using the agenda of the sixty-seventh session of the General Assembly contained in documents A/67/251 and A/67/251/Add.1.

Electronic versions in Microsoft Word should be also sent to gaab@un.org or dpu-dgacm@un.org, so as to facilitate the processing of communications. If versions in any other United Nations official languages are available, they should be included with a clear indication of the original language and/or which language versions are to be used for reference only.

Let United Nations documents come to you: e-subscription

A simple and fast alternate way to access United Nations parliamentary documents electronically is available through the Department for General Assembly and Conference Management's e-subscription service at http://undocs.org. Based on RSS feeds (Really Simple Syndication), the latest edition of the Journal and parliamentary documents issued daily at Headquarters can be accessed readily on a computer or hand-held smart device.

Sign-up is free and easy by visiting the e-subscription page at http://undocs.org. An overview of all documents with the options "e-mail" or "RSS" next to each document category is located there. After sign-up, documents will be sent to the subscriber via e-mail as soon as they are made available.

Comments, questions and suggestions are invited to be sent to dgacm-feedback@un.org.

Access to back issues of the Journal of the United Nations

Back issues of the Journal of the United Nations, in English and French, can be accessed at the following addresses: www.un.org/en/documents/journal.asp and www.un.org/fr/documents/journal.asp.

Kindly take note that the English and French versions of the Journal are accessible to blind and visually impaired users via screen readers.

All comments and suggestions about the Journal are welcome. Kindly contact the office of the Journal at journal@un.org.

Touch screen information kiosks

The Department for General Assembly and Conference Management (DGACM) invites delegations and staff to use the two touch screen information kiosks located in the North Lawn Building to access the official meeting schedule, the Journal of the United Nations, the Delegates' Handbook, the Blue Book and the United Nations Staff Yellow Pages, as well as Headquarters and Conference Room Maps. These easy to use kiosks are located on the ground floor just after the First Avenue entrance security checkpoint and on the second floor next to the Café. DGACM welcomes feedback, questions or comments pertaining to the information kiosks, which can be addressed to dgacm-feedback@un.org.
